Wait, what happened? No one can reach the interviewer, what should we do? Umm okay you.

PA [Off Screen]

Wait me no way I have nothing to say.

PA

Wow um-okay. What's this package about?

FM [Off Screen]

Boston. Just talk about what you like about Boston.

PA [To Cam]

Okay, Good evening and welcome to [Channel Name]. Today is a brisk day in Boston! I'm [Danielle]. Sorry for the miscommunication, but our original host was not able to make it today, so I will be filling in! Anyways, our original host was supposed to talk to you all about their favorite parts about Boston, But I'm gonna do the opposite.

CAM 2 MS

PA

This is my first year in Boston, and it's definitely been an adjustment. Since I'm from Los Angeles, everything in Boston is new to me.

Ready CAM 3

CAM 3 CU

PA

Of course, Boston is a great city but it definitely has its issues. Like for instance public transportation. Oh here's a friendly reminder from someone who has waited for the T countless amount of times. If you plan to take the MBTA subway to go out, please give it plenty of downtime.

Ready Venice

Take Venice BROLL
(length 7 seconds)

PA

Next off, let's talk about the traffic. It usually takes longer to drive somewhere here than to walk there. In L.A. That is definitely not the case.

PA

Boston has a lot of traffic in the evening rush hour, especially in Chinatown and Newbury streets. Don't try to challenge them.

PA

I guess I have always admired the drivers in Boston. They really face a lot every day: traffic, narrow lanes, and the daily routine of not being able to find a parking lot. Also bikes, I swear those guys just think they have control over the entire road.

PA

Even though the traffic is horrible in L.A., you always know what to expect when driving on certain roads.

Ready BROLL
Take BROLL
(length 7 seconds)

OH and, how do people stand Boston winters? This year hasn't been as bad as normal, but I truly do not know how Bostonians handle the constant cold and horrific wind chill!

PA

Here in Boston, I have learned that it's crucial to get out as much as you can in the fall because in the winter, you will sometimes be fully trapped in your room.

CAM 2 MS

PA

Oh, and don't even get me started with the new 10 million dollar MLK sculpture in the Common.

Ready BROLL

Anyways, I think that's all of the time we have today but thank you all for joining me on this wild interview ride!
